

CEB Acquires Leading California Family Law Resource Attorney's BriefCase, Doubling Market Share

OAKLAND, Calif. (February 18, 2025) — CEB, the leading source of California-specific legal research, practical guidance and continuing legal education (CLE), has acquired family law resource Attorney's BriefCase Inc., effective today. The deal pairs two of the most trusted and authoritative California legal research and CLE providers, solidifying the leadership position of CEB in the family law market.

Founded by the preeminent California family law attorney Garrett Dailey, Attorney's BriefCase is the oldest self-contained legal research program. Its offerings include a comprehensive family law research product and the market-leading annual Family Law Seminar CLE series that is widely considered a must-attend for California family law attorneys.

"We are honored that Garrett has chosen CEB to help him carry on his life's work of developing and curating the state's most respected family law resource," said CEB CEO and Executive Director Kelly Lake. "This alignment reinforces our position as the No. 1 source of California legal knowledge and information, in addition to substantially increasing our family law content and CLE offerings."

As part of the transaction, Dailey will join CEB as Editor Emeritus to ensure product and service continuity. He will continue to play a large part in the curriculum and delivery of annual CLE seminars. The core Attorney's BriefCase team will also support the integration with CEB.

"CEB shares my passion for supporting the California legal market, and this alliance complements my vision for the evolution of Attorney's BriefCase," said Dailey. "Combined, we will provide the kinds of must-have resources that California family lawyers wouldn't even think about practicing without."

The acquisition blends the Attorney's BriefCase curated case law coverage and bench-to-bar CLE collection with CEB's attorney-authored practical guidance, including its popular Practice Under the California Family Law Code. Customers of both companies will benefit from this comprehensive resource, now available in one collection.

"We are confident that every practicing California family law attorney will find exactly what they need within CEB as we combine the exhaustive offerings of Attorney's BriefCase with our own," said Geoff Moore, CEB's Small Law Segment Product Manager. "Having Garrett and his team join us will also maintain the personalized service Attorney's BriefCase customers have come to expect, as putting our users first has always been a core value for CEB."

About CEB

CEB is the leading source of California-specific legal research, practical guidance and continuing education, trusted by legal professionals for over 75 years. Our comprehensive content and analysis, developed in collaboration with California's top judges and practicing attorneys, empower law firms, government agencies and companies of all sizes to navigate the complexities of California law with accuracy and confidence. From authoritative research tools and practical workflows to daily news updates and expert insights, CEB provides the solutions that legal teams need to deliver superior client outcomes and respond proactively to the state's evolving legal landscape. For more information, please visit ceb.com.

Media Contact:

Kevin Aschenbrenner

ContentPR@ignitemarketing.pro

250-508-3244